Lighting of the Candles

We light the Christ candle to remind us of Christ's presence among us. May this flame remind us we are loved and are not alone.

We light the Affirming candle to remind us that everyone is welcome here. We are all God's children and our community includes people of all cultural backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities. God loves all of us.

Call to Worship

Why are we called to this place?

To be God's people.

What is required of us?

To seek justice,

to love kindness,

to live humbly with God.

And how shall we do this?

With our prayers,
with our thoughts,
with our actions,
and with our love.

Then, as people who are both blessed and blessing:

Let us worship God!

Richard Bott, Grace U.C., Burlington, Ont.

Opening Prayer

Spirit of Truth and Wisdom,
you are our comforter,
always,
guiding us,
teaching us,
showing us the way.

We flourish under your care and direction and love.

Praising your name, forever, we pray. Amen.

Pat Clysdale-Cornell, Knox U.C., Fort Frances, Ont.

these are the ones we should love,
all are neighbours to us and you. *Refrain

Kneel at the feet of our friends, silently washing their feet,
this is the way we should live with you. *Refrain

Passing of the Peace/ Greeting Time

Prayer of Confession

God, we are a broken people, living in a broken world.

It is not fashionable to admit this.

Usually, we regard ourselves as pretty good folks, only in need of a little tweaking here and there. But the problem goes deeper than that.

In this African Heritage/Black History Month, we cannot escape the recognition that racism is not about the actions and attitudes of a few people.

It is deeply ingrained in our culture, and very few of us are beyond its reach.

We need your challenge to be honest.

We need your forgiveness to cleanse our souls.

We need your call to change and action.

We need your guidance to free everyone from the bondage of racism.

We pray in the name of Jesus the Christ, who came to call us to repentance and newness of life. Amen.

Words of Assurance

The testimony of the tradition of Israel, together with the testimony of the tradition of the church, is that God longs for a world of justice, equality, and freedom.

Surely, the arc of history is bent toward this reality as we join with God in the repair of this world.

Let us not be discouraged.

Thanks be to God.

John Moses, Aylesford U.C., Aylesford, N.S.

Prayer of Illumination

Creator, please open our hearts and minds to receiving your wisdom today.

Lectionary Readings

Micah 6:1-8

Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the case of the Lord, and you enduring foundations of the earth, for the Lord has a case against his people, and he will contend with Israel.

“O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me! For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the Lord."

"With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

He has told you, O mortal, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

Psalm 15 (VU p. 736)

Refrain:

With - in your ho- ly place, O God, who shall a dwell - er be?

God, who may be a guest in your house,
or who may dwell on your holy mountain? Refrain

One who leads a blameless life,
who does what is right,
who speaks truthfully from the heart;
one whose tongue is free from malice,
who never wrongs a friend,
who utters no reproach against a neighbour;
one who cannot respect the unworthy,
but honours those who fear God;
who stands by a promise given,
though it be to personal disadvantage;
one who will not take interest on a loan,
nor accept a bribe to testify against the innocent.
Whoever does this shall never be overthrown. Refrain

Thomas Tallis ca. 1567

Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Mother and Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
